

Open Kinship?

Social and Legal Practices from Gender Perspectives (1450–1900)

10th Conference of the European network "Gender Differences in the History of European Legal Cultures"

26-28 September 2019, University of Vienna

Venue

University of Vienna, Hauptgebäude(Main Building), First Floor, Seminarraum Geschichte 1

Conveners

Margareth Lanzinger, Julia Heinemann, Johannes Kaska and Janine Maegraith

Hosted by

FWF research project „The Role of Wealth in Defining and Constituting Kinship Spaces from 16th to the 18th Century”

Cooperation partners

Research area “Economy and Society from a Perspective of Historical and Cultural Studies”

Stadt Wien Kultur

Department of Economic and Social History

Thursday, 26 September

13.30 Reception & Registration

14.00 Welcome & Greetings

Introduction | Margareth Lanzinger (Vienna) and Janine Maegraith (Cambridge/Vienna)

Session 1: Labelling and Kinning

Chair: Margareth Lanzinger (Vienna)

14:30 Jasmin Hauck (Eichstätt-Ingolstadt/Rome) | Personae coniunctae: The limits of kinship in doctrine and practice of legal representation in the Later Middle Ages

15:15 Sophie Ruppel (Basel) | I offered him brotherhood, but he would only accept me as a father. "Kinning" in seventeenth century high aristocracy

16:00 Coffee Break

16:30 Regina Schäfer (Mainz) | Who is kin? Labelling family in court records of the fifteenth and sixteenth century

17:15 Nicoleta Roman (Bucharest) | Law, women and family. Dowry and inheritance in mid-nineteenth century Wallachia

19:30 Dinner

Friday, 27 September

Session 2: Rearranging Kin

Chair: Johannes Kaska (Vienna)

09:00 Siglinde Clementi (Bolzano/Brixen) | Remarriage arrangements and inheritance practices in stepfamilies of the Tyrolean nobility in the early modern period

09:45 Isabelle Chabot (Padova) | A fraternity without blood ties? Relations between brothers- and sisters-in-laws in Florence in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries

10:30 Coffee Break

11:00 Luisa Stella de Oliveira Coutinho Silva (Frankfurt) | Illegitimate children in the Captaincy of Paraíba: kinship and family relations in the colonization of Brazil

11:45 Rebecca Mason (Glasgow) | Women on the margins: blended families and legal practices in the courts of seventeenth-century Glasgow

12:30 Lunch

Session 3: Family and Household Configurations

Chair: Janine Maegraith (Cambridge/Vienna)

14:00 Marina Garbellotti (Verona) | What made a man a 'father' or a woman a 'mother'? Adoption and fosterage practices in early modern Italy

14:45 Adina Eckart (Bamberg) | Lucrezia de' Medici Salviati – a case study concerning the role of mothers in familial capital accumulation

15:30 Coffee Break

16:00 Evdoxios Doxiadis (Burnaby) | Fathers and married daughters

16:45 Benedetta Borello (Cassino) | Brotherhood and brothers in seventeenth-century Rome: the case of merchants, artisans, inn-keepers and painters

17:30 Coffee Break

18:00 Keynote | Michaela Hohkamp (Hanover) | Favourites, sweethearts and darlings – a kaleidoscopic survey of early modern modes of kinship and their epistemological settings from a historical-anthropological perspective – and beyond

19:30 Dinner

Saturday, 28 September

Session 4: Law and Conflict

Chair: Julia Heinemann (Vienna)

09:00 Marie Malherbe (Vienna/Rouen) | Gender perspectives on civil trials in Venetian aristocratic families (1710-1820)

09:45 Andrea Griesebner (Vienna) | Kinning and de-kinning in the context of marital conflicts and separation from bed and board

10:30 Coffee Break

11:00 Nathalie Büsler (Zurich) | The patrimonialization of the communal offices in the Old Swiss Confederation (fifteenth to eighteenth century)

11:45 Dmitry Mukhin (Vologda) | Family borders in the northern Russian village at the end of the nineteenth century

12:30 Final comment | Anna Bellavitis (Rouen)

13:00 Lunch