

Curriculum Vitae

Dieter Ferdinand Stiefel
born 21.4.1946 in Linz/Austria married, 2 children
Nationality: Austrian

Contact: Dieter.Stiefel@univie.ac.at

Education:

1951 - 1960 elementary school in Burghausen/Germany

1960 - 1966 apprenticeship and work in the hotel and restaurant trade in Germany, France and Switzerland

1966 - 1968 preparation for the university entrance exam
(Matura) in Vienna

1968 studies of economics and business administration at the Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration

1972 Master's degree social and economic sciences

1974 Doktor's degree social and economic sciences

1974 Studies of history at the University Vienna

1978 Doktor's degree in philosophy

Professional Experience:

1973 - 1988 Assistant Professor and Lecturer in Social and Economic History at the "Department of Social and Economic History", Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration

1981 Research Fellow
Robinson College University Cambridge, England

1986 "Habilitation" in Social and Economic History
Thesis Titel: "The Great Depression in a Small Country: Austria in the 1930s"

1989 Research Fellow
Center for European Studies
Harvard University, Cambridge, USA

2002 Research Fellow
Institute for European Studies
University of California/Berkeley, USA

1993 - 2016 full Professor of Social and Economic History at the "Department for Social and Economic History" and at the "Department of Economics", University Vienna